

“Durchstarten” is taking off!

Send us your application until 20 April 2018

Durchstarten (literally: taking off) is a new funding programme that supports emerging experts in Arts Education. It is programme for young adults, people with disabilities, people with migration background and refugees as applicants.

You are an artist and working with young people?

You need money for your project, but complicated application processes prevent you from putting your ideas into practice?

You want to change the fact that your ideas and experiences tend to come off short in project work?

You want to be socially involved and help to shape the field of Arts Education?

...then “Durchstarten” is what you’re looking for. We support your project with 1000 € per month for up to one year.

Hand in your application until 20 April 2018!
